NOTHING WITHOUT YOU

Robert Pierre Returns, After 6 Years, With Worship Album “Nothing Without You”

After six years, 24-year old Robert Pierre returns with his fourth solo project Nothing Without You: a dynamic Worship album, reflecting the heart and soul of the worship leader he has become. While taking time away from touring and recording, Robert has been fully engaged in completing his college degree at the University of Central Florida, getting married and being the full-time director of worship at his local church, leading worship week-in and week-out. “As I began to serve as the worship leader, my passion was quickly directed to church work,” he recalls. “I felt that there was no greater use of my talents than to give them back to the Lord and His church. Whether leading people in lifting high the name of Jesus through worship, or proclaiming His Word without apology, I wanted to use every resources God had given me to serve His church. My heart and my passion became to write songs that the church would proclaim back to the Lord. Having lead worship for eight years now, my desire is to help train and equip the local church worship leader to best minister to their own congregation.”

Nothing Without You is a collection of original songs, written by Pierre over the past several years with friends from around the country. Teaming up again with seasoned producer, Matt Bronleewe, no stone was left unturned to make this his most compelling album yet. “I’ve had the privilege of knowing Robert for many years,” Bronleewe reflects, “and his new release Nothing Without You displays everything I’ve come to admire in him: a fresh voice with a bold message, an unwavering commitment to musical excellence, and an undeniable passion for worship.”

ABOUT ROBERT PIERRE:

Since the age of thirteen, Pierre has been professionally recording and touring as a featured artist for various nation-wide events, music festivals, tours and youth camps. As a high school junior, with several singles spinning on the radio, Pierre was asked to join the Winter Jam 2010 line-up. He was, at the time, their youngest-ever artist and performed for an accumulated audience of over 500,000 during that 44-city tour. In 2012, Pierre partnered with The Family Research Council and Students for Life to launch the “Hear the Silent Cry” campaign in support of the pro-life movement with his song, Silent Cry. In 2014, Pierre was married to his wife, Nicole, and is currently on staff at Harvest Bible Chapel Winter Garden in the Orlando, Florida, area. Pierre has been an integral member of two church plants and has been trained through Harvest Bible Fellowship. He runs both the adult and student-ministry music programs. He coordinates and contributes to song writing workshops, vocal training and, in 2013, he produced and recorded “Harvest Live,” a live worship CD completely comprised by and for the members of his church. Embodying the values and ideals of the worship leader, Pierre also has the heart of a pastor. Pierre begins his master’s degree at Moody Theological Seminary this fall.
